AUTHOR & SUBJECT INDEX

1994

VOLUME 35

AUTHOR INDEX

AMBERG, ROB, "I Came for the Money," May/June, p. 15.

BEATTY, JACK, Combating Violence, May/June, p. 24.

BRODY, DEBORAH, Womanly Consideration, May/June, p. 36.

_____, Resolving Conflict, Sep/Oct, p. 40.

_____, Interpreting Donor Intent, Nov/Dec, p. 35.

BURROUGHS, HUGH, AND STERLING SPEIRN, The Art of Grantmaking, Sep/Oct, p. 25.

CLARK, SYLVIA, It All Adds Up, Mar/Apr, p. 47.

CLYDE, ALLAN R., Unveiling the Hidden Sector, Jan/Feb, p. 48.

_____, A Program Officer and a Gentleman, July/Aug, p. 15.

COOK, LAUREN, Introduction to foundations and public policy case studies, July/Aug, p. 16.

CRENSHAW, CAROL, Think FASB, Sep/Oct, p. 29.

DUNN, PETER, Another Retirement Benefit, Nov/Dec, p. 33.

EDIE, JOHN A., Prudent Payout Pays Off, Mar/Apr, p. 30.

EDIE, JOHN A., AND LOWELL S. SMITH, Let Go Of Your Old Investment Assumptions, Jan/Feb, p. 34.

FIX, JANET L., Wealth in New Hands, Jan/Feb, p. 18.

FLEISCHMANN, RUTH H., The Gift Must Always Move, Nov/Dec, p. 50.

GRECO, JOANN, Practical Solutions to Extraordinary Gifts, May/June, p. 42.

HEALEY, JUDITH K., Dad Would Have Wanted it This Way, Jan/Feb, p. 14.

HIGUERA, JONATHAN J., They Harvest Our Food, May/June, p. 12.

JOSEPH, JAMES A., Revisiting Principles and Practices, Jan/Feb, p. 41.

_____, The Public Climate for Private Philanthropy, Mar/Apr, p. 46.

_____, Philanthropy in the New South Africa, May/June, p. 35.

_____, Foundations and Public Policy, July/Aug, p. 35.

_____. _____, Philanthropy and Religion Revisited, Sep/Oct, p. 35.

_____, The Changing Boundaries of Philanthropy, Nov/Dec, p. 31.

KROLL, JUDITH, Grantors and Gift Gatherers, Sep/Oct, p. 18.

KUHN, SUSAN M., Strong Suits, Sep/Oct, p. 13.

LAMBERT, MARK H., Armchair Conferencing, Mar/Apr, p. 54.

LITKE, RONALD, A Sign of the Times, Mar/Apr, p. 38.

_____, Shifting Standards, July/Aug, p. 36.

MAGAT, RICHARD, Philanthropic Reading Circles, Jan/Feb, p. 24.

_____, The Twain Meet...Sometimes, Nov/Dec, p. 24.

NOBER, JANE C., Grants to Government, Nov/Dec, p. 29.

ODELL, MARGARET SCHMID, One on One and Then Some. Jan/Feb, p. 44.

_____, Small Staffs, Sep/Oct, p. 37.

PECKHAM, VIRGINIA, Wise Hiring, May/June, p. 20.

_____, Teaching the Ropes, Nov/Dec, p. 36.

AUTHOR & SUBJECT INDEX

POLLACK, RON, On the Health Care Horizon, Mar/Apr, p. 26.

REARDON, CHRISTOPHER, New York Neighbors, Mar/Apr, p. 12.

_____, This Way to the Policy Arena, July/Aug, p. 16.

ROSEN, DAVID, The Virtues of CD-ROM, July/Aug, p. 38.

ROWH, MARK, Making Time for Making Grants, July/Aug, p. 26.

SACKS, ELEANOR, Taking a Hard Look, July/Aug, p. 41.

SCHNEIDERMAN, MARTIN B., Foundations in Computerland, Nov/Dec, p. 10.

SCHARDT, ARLIE, An Urban Affair, July/Aug, p. 12.

SCHOOLER, DEAN, Endowments: Indispensable Storehouses for the Future, May/June, p. 30.

SLUTSKY, LORIE, A CONVERSATION WITH KATHLEEN TELTSCH, Nov/Dec, p. 21.

SMITH, LOWELL S., AND JOHN A. EDIE, Let Go Of Your Old Investment Assumptions, Jan/Feb, p. 34.

SPEIRN, STERLING, AND HUGH BURROUGHS, The Art of Grantmaking, Sep/Oct, p. 25.

STERNE, LARRY, A Reasonable Idealist, May/June, p. 39.

_____, Giving As They Grow, Sep/Oct, p. 42.

STONE, DEANNE, The Truth About Succession Planning, Jan/Feb, p. 46.

_____, Where to Fund?, Mar/Apr, p. 50.

WHITE, DAPHNE, The Mind-Body-Foundation Connection, Mar/Apr, p. 20.

_____, Forging, Founding & Funding, July/Aug, p. 22.

WIERMAN, SCOTT F., Courting the Converted, Mar/Apr, p. 52.

WILLIAMS, ROGER M., Walter's Way, Jan/Feb, p. 10.

WILSON, MARIE C., Our Unexpected Media Miracle, Sep/Oct, p. 50.

ZEHR, MARY ANN, Surviving Moves and Mergers, Jan/Feb, p. 42.

_____, Community Mission, Sep/Oct, p. 20.

_____, Communication Inspiration, Nov/Dec, p. 18.

SUBJECT INDEX

COMMUNITY FOUNDATIONS

Another Retirement Benefit, The tax implications make giving retirements funds to community foundations a good idea. Nov/Dec, p. 33.

Community Mission, The New Mexico Community Foundation coordinates in-kind giving and volunteerism in order to restore historic adobe churches. Sep/Oct, p. 20.

Competing Collaborators?, Community foundations and a representative of the Fidelity Charitable Gift Fund meet. May/June, p. 9.

Courting the Converted, Principles to work by to maintain donors. Mar/Apr, p. 52.

First Nations First, Community Foundations of Canada establishes fund for native peoples. Jan/Feb, p. 9.

One on One and Then Some, How to reach attorneys and key advisers. Jan/Feb, p. 44.

Practical Solutions to Extraordinary Gifts, Ways that community foundation heads have handled unusual gifts. May/June, p. 42.

Small Staffs, Five community foundation heads offer advice for managing with a staff of three or fewer. Sep/Oct, p. 37.

Taking a Hard Look, A description of COF's Organizational Development Assistance program for community foundations. July/Aug, p. 41.

CORPORATE

Corporate Philanthropy Sold, Craig Smith sells his monthly newsletter to Capitol Publications. May/June, p. 10.

Giving As They Grow, How three fast-growing companies are boosting their philanthropy. Sep/Oct, p. 42.

It All Adds Up, Measuring impact of corporate giving and involvement in the community. Mar/Apr, p. 47.

A Reasonable Idealist, Prudential Foundation head Peter Goldberg reflects on 12 years of corporate philanthropy. May/June, p. 39.

Surviving Moves and Mergers, Changes in company operations can test ability of giving staff. Jan/Feb, p. 42.

Teaching the Ropes, Advice for orienting corporate foundation trustees. Nov/Dec, p. 36.

Author & Subject Index

ENVIRONMENT

Eco Collaboration, Regional collaboration regarding the Gulf of Maine. Jan/Feb, p. 8.

Forest Force, A group of foundations and an alliance of nonprofits are working to preserve New England's Northern Forest. July/Aug, p. 10.

Forging, Founding & Funding, A Q&A with Joshua Reichert, director of Pew Charitable Trusts environment program, on the foundation's proactive approach. July/Aug, p. 22.

Kinder, Gentler Roads, A nonprofit pushes for federal transportation legislation to require states to address environmental impact. May/June, p. 10.

ETHICS

Revisiting Principles and Practices, Monitoring standards for grantmaking. Jan/Feb, p. 41.

FAMILY

Dad Would Have Wanted it This Way, How three family foundations have handled donor intent. Jan/Feb, p. 14.

Interpreting Donor Intent, How well foundations carry out donor intent depends on how well the donor spells out what those wishes are. Nov/Dec, p. 35.

Resolving Conflict, Family foundations discuss models for handling disagreements. Sep/Oct, p. 40.

The Truth About Succession Planning, Foundations find trust and honesty factors in relinquishing control. Jan/Feb, p. 46.

Where to Fund?, Overcoming geographic dispersion for grantmaking decisions. Mar/Apr, p. 50.

GOVERNMENT & LEGISLATION

Capitol Hill Recommendations, A report on how House Ways and Means Oversight Subcommittee recommendations turn out to be favorable for foundations. July/Aug, p. 8.

Doubling Disclosure, The Lobbying Disclosure Act passes despite opposition. May/June, p. 8.

Filer's Vision, Remembering John H. Filer, the namesake and leader of the "Filer Commission." Nov/Dec, p. 8.

Foundations and Public Policy, Foundations have a long history of involvement in public policy formation. July/Aug, p. 35.

Government Roundup, Government and nonprofit happenings on city, state and federal levels. Nov/Dec, p. 7.

Grants to Government, Practical pointers on how to do it. Nov/Dec, p. 29.

Public Policy in Pennsylvania, Grantmakers hold statewide meeting on public policy. Jan/Feb, p. 8.

Rep. Pickle Moves On, J.J. Pickle decides not to seek re-election. Mar/Apr, p. 8.

Stock Up Now, Tax deduction for gifts of appreciated stock to sunset. Sep/Oct, p. 8.

Strong Suits, Public policy profiles of Greater Kansas City Community and Edna McConnell Clark foundations; part II in series. Sep/Oct, p. 13.

This Way to the Policy Arena, Case studies of how the New Hampshire Charitable Foundation and the Heinz Endowments have tried to improve public policy. July/Aug, p. 16.

White House Connection, The Clintons invite nonprofit leaders to the White House. May/June, p. 8.

GRANTMAKING

Affinity Group Additions, Several affinity groups add paid staff. July/Aug, p. 9.

The Art of Grantmaking, The Peninsula Foundation's search for the best mix of long-term and immediate grantmaking approaches. Sep/Oct, p. 24.

Death of a Duchess, Tobacco heiress Doris Duke dies. Jan/Feb, p. 7.

Endowments: Indispensable Storehouses for the Future, A defense for why the U.S. needs more endowment. May/June, p. 30.

Mighty Casey, The Annie E. Casey Foundation moves to Baltimore. Nov/Dec, p. 8.

Never Too Old, Leslie Wexner wins the 1993 American Philanthropy Award. Jan/Feb, p. 6.

Northwest Thinkfest, Eighteen Northwest grantmakers meet to discuss the big picture of grantmaking. July/Aug, p. 8.

A Program Officer and a Gentleman, A profile of the Charles Stewart Mott Foundations Jack Litzenberg, 1994 Scrivner Award winner. July/Aug, p. 15.

Time Out, Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation suspends giving during self-examination. Mar/Apr, p. 11.

True Texas, Janice Windle on publicity trail of novel True Women. Mar/Apr, p. 10.

Author & Subject Index

An Urban Affair, Report on the COF 45th Annual Conference, which focuses on needs of U.S. cities. May/June, p. 12.

Walter's Way, Walter Annenberg on how foundations should operate. Jan/Feb, p. 11.

Wealth in New Hands, Inheritors of part of an $8 trillion transfer of wealth share visions on philanthropy. Jan/Feb, p. 18.

We're In-Pressed, Foundation leaders profiled in Town & Country. Jan/Feb, p. 7.

Womanly Consideration, Sometimes it makes a difference whether or not a woman is in charge at a foundation. May/June, p. 36.

HEALTH

Death and Dying, Kellogg funds program allowing caregivers to end life support humanely. Mar/Apr, p. 10.

Getting Health Reform Facts Out, California Wellness and Henry J. Kaiser foundations and public awareness campaign. Sep/Oct, p. 11.

The Mind-Body-Foundation Connection, Health movement stresses care for the whole person. Mar/Apr, p. 20.

No Smoking, SmokeLess States program aims to reduce tobacco use by youth. Jan/Feb, p. 7.

On the Health Care Horizon, Foundations opportunity to educate Americans on health reform plans. Mar/Apr, p. 26.

Success Story, Joint foundation/government program reports decline in infant mortality. Mar/Apr, p. 11.

HISTORY OF PHILANTHROPY

The Public Climate for Private Philanthropy, 25 years after 1969 Tax Reform Act. Mar/Apr, p. 46.

The Twain Meet...Sometimes, A historical view of the relationship between foundations and unions. Nov/Dec, p. 24.

INNOVATIONS IN PHILANTHROPY

Donor Decides, United Way of National Capital Area to fund as foundations award grants. Mar/Apr, p. 8.

Taking CARE in Atlanta, Robert W. Woodruff Foundation grant brings CARE to Atlanta. Jan/Feb, p. 6.

The Gift Must Always Move, Ruth Fleischmann describes The Marie C. and Joseph C. Wilson Foundation's unusual anniversary celebration. Nov/Dec, p. 50.

She's Still Creative, Joyce Bove awarded National Hispanic Health Leadership Award. Sep/Oct, p. 11.

Who's Your Favorite Heroine?, The Ms. Foundation for Women produces female heroine trading cards. July/Aug, p. 9.

INTERNATIONAL

The Changing Boundaries of Philanthropy, Foundations are reaching beyond national and political boundaries to address needs. Nov/Dec, p. 31.

CIVICUS Takes Shape, Miklos Marschall named executive director, Jan/Feb, p. 9.

Philanthropy in the New South Africa, Reasons why foundations should help South Africa maintain the vitality of its civic culture. May/June, p. 35.

INVESTMENTS & FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Let Go of Your Old Investment Assumptions, New ways foundation governing boards can preserve endowment. Jan/Feb, p. 34.

Prudent Payout Pays Off, IRS data suggestions on investing and spending over long term. Mar/Apr, p. 30.

A Sign of the Times, Aggressive investment strategies for foundations in the 1990s. Mar/Apr, p. 38.

MANAGEMENT & PERSONNEL

In the Top 10, Alicia Philipp listed one of 10 Most Admired Women Managers in America. Jan/Feb, p. 7.

Making Time for Making Grants, Six time management tips tailored to grantmakers. July/Aug, p. 26.

Think FASB, New accounting standards will substantially impact the way foundation financial information is recorded and reported. Sep/Oct, p. 28.

Wise Hiring, A guide to finding the right person for a grantmaking job. May/June, p. 18.

MEDIA

Conversation with Kathleen Teltsch, Lorie Slutsky interviews former New York Times philanthropy-beat reporter. Nov/Dec, p. 21.

Keystone Pubs, Philadelphia begins regional newsletter—Third Sector Report. Jan/Feb, p. 9.

Author & Subject Index

Our Unexpected Media Miracle, Marie Wilson describes Ms. Foundation's wide press coverage for its TAKE OUR DAUGHTERS TO WORK program. Sep/Oct, p. 50.

Philanthropic Equality, the National Council for Research on Women publishes a new quarterly. Nov/Dec, p. 7.

Shifting Standards, The media is inconsistent in how it ranks corporations according to social responsibility. July/Aug, p. 36.

MINORITIES/YOUTH

Alaska Natives and Philanthropy, Conference calls for more funding for concerns of Alaska Natives. Sep/Oct, p. 9.

Grants for Gays and Lesbians, Joyce Mertz-Gilmore Foundation funds gays/lesbians as part of its human rights program. Sep/Oct, p. 8.

NEW FOUNDATIONS

Two From One, Woods Charitable Fund divides in two. Mar/Apr, p. 8.

NONPROFIT SECTOR

Giving Update, Foundations gave $9.21 billion to nonprofits in 1993. July/Aug, p. 9.

Philanthropic Reading Circles, Nonprofit sector staffers establish book discussion groups. Jan/Feb, p. 24.

Sad Day for United Way, Indictment of former President of United Way of America, William Aramony. Nov/Dec, p. 9.

Valid Costs, Release of a new survey—Indirect Costs: Practices & Perspectives. Nov/Dec, p. 9.

RELIGION

Philanthropy and Religion, Philanthropy and Religion in a Civil Society conference report. Sep/Oct, p. 8.

Philanthropy and Religion Revisited, Efforts to build cooperation between foundations and religious institutions go back a long way. Sep/Oct, p. 35.

RESEARCH

Grantors and Gift Gatherers, Highlights of Council research report, Community Foundations in the United States: 1992 Status. Sep/Oct, p. 18.

Unveiling the Hidden Sector, Nonprofit Sector Research Fund works to increase visibility of the sector. Jan/Feb, p. 48.

SOCIAL ISSUES

Combating Violence, News analysis of media reports of violence in the U.S. and descriptions of foundation-supported violence prevention programs. May/June, p. 24.

"I Came for the Money," A photo essay of the life and conditions of Mexican tobacco harvesters. May/June, p. 15.

They Harvest Our Food, A handful of foundations are funding projects to support the rights of farmworkers. May/June, p. 12.

TECHNOLOGY

Armchair Conferencing, Ongoing dialogues through computer network conferences. Mar/Apr, p. 54.

Communication Inspiration, A roundup of information by or about foundations that's available online. Nov/Dec, p. 18.

Foundations in Computerland, A guide to implementing a computerized grants management system. Nov/Dec, p. 10.

Grantmaker Software, Microedge, Inc. introduces GIFTS for Windows. Mar/Apr, p. 11.

Growing Nonprofit Computer Nets, The US West Foundation joins with the Corporation for Public Broadcasting to develop local nonprofit computer networks. July/Aug, p. 10.

Monitoring the Information Superhighway, A report on a conference about the upcoming information superhighway. May/June, p. 9.

Software for Grantmakers, Introduction of TRACSTAR software for community foundations, Jan/Feb, p. 9.

Software Upgrade, MicroEdge and Riverside Software, Inc., market new software for grantmaking. Nov/Dec, p. 8.

The Virtues of CD-ROM, The John and Mary R. Markle Foundation funds production of CD-ROM educational materials. July/Aug, p. 38.

URBAN

More Millions for Community Development, An unprecedented joining of public and private funds to help communities rebuild themselves. May/June, p. 10.

New York Neighbors, How the NYC philanthropic community is involved in urban revitalization. Mar/Apr, p. 12.